Industrial Market Research Site Launched by DJS Research Ltd

DJS Research Ltd a leading UK market research consultancy, offering qualitative and quantitative market research services, today launched a new website. The site, which can be found at: Industrial Market Research is specifically aimed at highlighting their capabilities of conducting research within the industrial sector.

The website outlines their specific services in this area (qualitative and quantitative), industry experience, how they approach industrial surveys, further details about DJS Research and some interesting facts related to the area.

The company has particular expertise in researching industrial markets. The Directors at DJS Research have more than 10 years experience each of using research to help industrial companies with a range of commercial issues including customer satisfaction, new product development, channel management and market entry and acquisition work.

DJS offer a bespoke service with Research Directors managing and running projects from start to finish.

The consultancy is based in the North West of England and pride themselves on providing a quality service but at affordable and value for money rates. They are members of the Market Research Society, ESOMAR, AIMRI and ICG.
