May 2014 Sees Indian Cereal Exports Grow More Than 20 Per Cent From Previous Month

Contributed by InfodriveIndia.com
Wednesday, 11 June 2014

InfodriveIndia.com, Indiaâ€™s premier research company in export import market research, announced today that Indiaâ€™s Cereals exports in May- 2014 has grew to US$ 1015.6 M, an increase of 22.25% compared to April 2014.

This finding is based on India exports of Cereals export data of InfodriveIndia.com and is based on export shipping bills filed at Indian customs by exporters from India through May- 2014 at more than 110 ports in India like JNPT, Bombay Air and Sea , Chennai Air & Sea , Delhi IGI Air, Delhi Tughlakhabad ICD, Delhi Patparganj, Kolkata Air and Sea, Bangalore Air and many more. InfodriveIndia.com India Cereals Export database is considered to be the most comprehensive, up-to-date and authentic information on Indiaâ€™s foreign trade of Cereals.

According to Pradeep, Chief Research Associate of InfodriveIndia.com, compared to April 2014, a increase of USD 1015.6 M in May- 2014 has been noticed. He further gives a analysis and break up of India exports of major product categories , major countries and major Indian ports under Cereals as follows :

A. Exports of Rice has grew month on month basis by 19.32%.

Total value of exports in May- 2014 was 649.4 M, compared to April 2014 , there is a increase of 105.13 M in May- 2014, growth rate in percentage terms is 19.32%, the major destination countries were Saudi arabia, Iran, Kuwait, United arab Emirates and Qatar and major Indian ports were Mundra, Loni ICD, Kandla, Ludhiana ICD and Kakinada.

B. Exports of Wheat and Meslin has grew month on month basis by 81.9%.

Total value of exports in May- 2014 was 218.36 M, compared to April 2014 , there is a increase of 98.32 M in May- 2014, growth rate in percentage terms is 81.9%, the major destination countries were Indonesia, United arab Emirates, Bangladesh, Korea, Republic of and Sudan and major Indian ports were Kandla, Krishnapatanam, Vizag Sea, Mundra and Pipavab.

C. Exports of Maize (Corn) has fallen month on month basis by -11.5%.

Total value of exports in May- 2014 was 124.59 M, compared to April 2014 , there is a decrease of -16.19 M in May- 2014, growth rate in percentage terms is -11.5%, the major destination countries were Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam, Sri Lanka and Oman and major Indian ports were Kakinada, JNPT, Krishnapatanam, Tondiarpet ICD and Madras Sea.

D. Exports of Barley has fallen month on month basis by -45.14%.

Total value of exports in May- 2014 was 10.89 M, compared to April 2014 , there is a decrease of -8.96 M in May- 2014, growth rate in percentage terms is -45.14%, the major destination countries were Iran, United arab Emirates, Korea, Republic of, Taiwan and Oman and major Indian ports were Kandla, Mundra, Jaipur ICD-Kanakpura, Ahmedabad ICD and JNPT.

Pradeep says that the above information is on major product categories, and users requiring detailed analysis and reports on their specific products can contact Sales team at InfodriveIndia.com with detailed description of their product, brand names and its uses.

According to Pradeep, usually InfodriveIndia.com team delivers most of the projects within 3 working days.

InfodriveIndia.com analysis and research is done from India export shipment data from Indian customs which is based on export shipping bills filed at various ports, InfodriveIndia reporters collect this data from every Indian port, and InfodriveIndia database yields the most timely, accurate, comprehensive information available on trade through India Ports. Recently after a long and persistent lobbying with Indian Govt, InfodriveIndia.com has been able to release export import data almost on realtime basis, bringing the backlog time to just 3 days, compared to Govt sources which are around 6 months old. Another unique feature of InfodriveIndia.com database is unparalleled coverage of 110 ports in India.

Media & Sales Contact:

Prashant Kumar
Vice President - Marketing
Infodrive India

E-2,3rd Floor, Kalkaji Main Road, New Delhi, India
Tel: +91-11-40703045
Email : mrktg@infodriveindia.com
Web :www.infodriveindia.com