The tenth Research & Results trade fair will take place on October 28-29, 2015. National and international market research firms can now reserve their spot at the most famous market research trade fair in the world. After a record-breaking 2014, an increased number of visitors and exhibitors are also expected this year. The event will once again take place at the Munich MOC.
xhibitor registration for the 2015 market research trade fair began recently. The Research & Results fair has established itself as a gathering of central importance in the industry and this year is being held for the tenth time. Up-to-date market research at one location: 157 exhibitors from 25 countries 91 workshops.

After a record year in 2014, growth is also expected for 2015: â€œMany of last yearâ€™s exhibitors have already registered for floor space and the coveted workshop slots. Weâ€™ve also registered keen interest from new bookers. In other words, exhibitor registration for Research & Results 2015 is already in full swing,â€• says Heinrich Fischer, managing director of the company organizing the event. This year the international trade fair for market research will once again take place at the Munich MOC, on October 28-29. Besides the exhibition, visitors can look forward to 91 workshops. Over 3,000 participants are expected.

In light of the growing international make-up of the exhibitors and visitors, the event will be conducted in both German and English.
